Chapter 29 of Gakuen Heaven by Fusion scans has been released after a short break. This is all thanks to member Expel's generous translations. However, Expel only does it in his (or her) own free time and there is no telling when they may contribute again ;_;

You can download it right here .

To find this chapter, please visit sites found on this page: <http://mangapimps.com/content/view/185/183/> under the gakuen heaven project description. Thank you.

Please...if you enjoy our releases from Fusion Scans then please consider joining us as a translator. So if anyone can please join, we would really appreciate it.

We don't need a translator anymore. One has been found. We could always use more help though, so if you still want to help, please inquire on our forums. Thanks.
